

Hello,

I'm Robert Eastburn, the Retirement Plan Advisor dedicated to your CERF Savings Plan. I wanted to take a moment to tell you about the remote personalized retirement analysis that's offered through your plan — at no cost to you.

This evaluation will give me a chance to look at your near- and long-term goals and provide you with a strategy to help you meet those goals. I can also help you answer questions like:

- Am I on track to meet my retirement goals?
- Are my investments where they need to be?
- How do my pension and Social Security work with my overall strategy?
- Where will my income come from in retirement?
